

This document was submitted to the 2022 Annual Survey of Higher Education in Prison for inclusion in the National Directory of Higher Education in Prison Programs (<https://www.higheredinprison.org/national-directory>). The document was created by and remains under the sole ownership of the individual higher education in prison program. Further, the document was not edited, modified or otherwise altered by the Research Collaborative on Higher Education in Prison at the University of Utah, the Goldman School of Public Policy, University of California, Berkeley and/or the Alliance for Higher Education in Prison.

To learn more about the Higher Education in Prison Landscape Project, visit:
<https://www.higheredinprison.org/higher-education-in-prison-landscape-project>

The Alliance for Higher Education subscribes to the Creative Commons Attribution: NonCommercial-ShareAlike (CC BY-NC-SA). All materials shared in the National Directory of Higher Education in Prison Programs will follow this license. This copyright licensing allows others to remix, adapt, and build upon work for non-commercial purposes, as long as they credit and license their new creations under the identical terms.

The Florida Prison Education Project

The Florida Prison Education Project's curriculum is aligned with the State of Florida's General Education Program (GEP) for easy transfer of credits to participating Florida State Colleges through the Credits for Prior Learning Program. Students who successfully complete the course with a grade of A, B, or C will earn a Continuing Education Certificate from the University of Central Florida. All courses are taught by credentialed faculty and offered virtually on the Lantern Tablet Platform.

Spring 2021 Course Offerings

ENC 1101 English Composition 1

Credit Hours: 3

Expository writing with emphasis on effective communication and critical thinking. Emphasizing the writing process writing topics are based on selected readings and on student experiences.

ENC 1102 English Composition 2

Credit Hours: 3

Focus on extensive research in analytical and argumentative writing based on a variety of readings from the humanities. Emphasis on developing critical thinking and diversity of perspective.

THE 2000 Theatre Survey

Credit Hours: 3

A survey of theatre as art, as entertainment, and as cultural identifier. By the end of the course, students will have a basic knowledge of theatre and will know how to explain and analyze a performance experience. Students will also be introduced to various theatre organizations within the Orlando area and understand how theatre is represented in local culture.

POS 2041 American National Government

Credit Hours: 3

A study of the dynamics of American national government, including its structure, organization, powers, and procedures.

PHY 2053 College Physics

Credit Hours: 3

The mission of the course is to learn tools of critical and quantitative analysis and thinking, using physics as a model. Emphasis will be placed on developing an understanding of core principles and concepts, with quantitative examples requiring the use of basic-level algebra and trigonometry being used to help clarify and illustrate their utility.

ENC 3250 Professional Writing

Credit Hours: 3

Study of and practice with professional writing as a rhetorical act involving problem solving and audience accommodation; includes research and text production practices as well as business genres and conventions.